

Danielle Cormack.

Height 168 cm

MC / Entertainer Biography

Johnson&Laird

Danielle is an acclaimed actress with an extensive career in film, television and theatre. After working on NZ-based shows such as Xena: Warrior Princess and The Cult, she came to prominence in Australia with powerhouse performances in several television series, including hugely popular crime show Underbelly, comedy-drama Rake and prison drama series Wentworth. Her talent has earned her a succession of accolades, winning Most Outstanding Actress at the TV Week Logie awards, Most Outstanding Performance by a Female at the ASTRA awards and a nomination for Best Actress at the 2014 Monte Carlo Film Festival. A mother of two, Danielle is based in Australia and is a proud ambassador for charity organisations, Shine and ChildFund, and youth programme Heartspeak Worldwide. Danielle enjoys all things fashion and beauty along with her epic Harley Davidson motorcycle! An astonishing talent, with a kind heart and fun-attitude, Danielle is a phenomenal entertainer.

Testimonials.

"Danielle was a guest presenter and MC of the Finalist Announcement event for the Air NZ Screen Awards. Danielle stepped in at quite short notice to MC the Finalist Announcement Event for approximately 200 media and finalists. Danielle has great stage presence, is polished and professional and great to work with."

- Air NZ Screen Awards

"Danielle has been a guest presenter of the NZ Music Awards twice. Danielle was selected both times because of her charisma, presence and sense of humour. This event is NZ's biggest night in music and Danielle contributed to another very successful event."

- The Vodafone NZ Music Awards

"Danielle kindly donated her time to support this very high profile Children's charity. Danielle's enthusiasm and great sense of humour helped set the tone for a very exciting night and enabled us to raise close to $200,000 from the live auction. Danielle has the personality to hold an audience and an ability to entertain while still maintaining the serious and sensitive nature of the event."

- Raukauri Music Therapy Trust

"Danielle was all that we could have asked for as an MC and more with her larger than life personality. Danielle has a natural charm, confidence and quick wit that worked really well for us in this environment. She kept the crowd entertained, interacted well with them and kept the event flowing smoothly and in a timely fashion. "

Danielle Cormack.

Page 2

Testimonials continued...