Tammy has already won the hearts of Kiwis with his infectious humour and irresistible charm. Best known for starring in hit comedy-drama Outrageous Fortune, Tammy is also an accomplished director, writer and broadcaster. He's had a prolific Kiwi film career too, starring in films such as Whale Rider, Black Sheep, Fracture and What Becomes of the Broken Hearted. A real all-rounder, willing to give everything a go, Tammy loves everything from Kapa Haka to cooking. He's a proud dad to three girls, and currently co-host of George FM 's Breakfast Show.

Tammy is passionate about raising awareness of social issues, and is affiliated with the West Auckland 'It's Not OK' campaign against family violence. A well-loved member of the community, Tammy is a great pick for MCing and public speaking events. His confidence, professionalism and innate kindness allow him to easily engage audiences whether it's on the screen or on a stage.

Testimonials.

Tammy was a total professional and charmed everyone who met him. We certainly kept him busy during the day! The club named one race the "Outrageous Fortune" and Tammy presented the connections with the trophy after the race, he was great.
