

Dai Henwood.

Height 167 cm

MC/Entertainer Biography

JOHNSON&LAIRD

Dai Henwood's dream has always been to make people laugh; thanks to his energy and quirky humour, the award-winning comedian has been living the dream for the past twenty years. Dai's comic characters and hilarious observations on life have seen him become one of the country's most popular and in-demand comedians. He's toured to sell-out live shows around New Zealand, and performed at prestigious offshore festivals such as Canada's famed Just For Laughs in Montreal, the Edinburgh Fringe and the Melbourne International Comedy Festival. He can be seen on Three's top rating shows 7 Days and Family Feud. His passions run from rugby league to tea and most things in between. A man of many talents, Dai is as comfortable donning a pair of tights and star-spangled shorts as comic character wrestler P Funk Chainsaw as he is baking apple and blackberry cobbler to raise money for the Red Cross at a celebrity lunch and has affiliations with Starship Children's Hospital and Hello Sunday Morning. An experienced and award-winning MC and host, he tailors his humour to the event. Dai's professionalism and infectious energy have seen him invited back to host the New Zealand Music Awards for four years; he's kept the crowds under control as MC at the Comedy Guild Awards and music festival Splore and he's delighted the Aussies hosting Tourism Australia's v'Ozcar' awards. Also an experienced radio DJ in both student and commercial radio. He's also held his own at several national comedy debates and is a regular judge at comedy competitions. Dai has helped fund raise for several charities from the Red Cross to the Otago SPCA. He has offered a game of pool with the highest bidder of TradeMe's online auction to raise money for the Auckland City Mission winter appeals and has performed at fundraisers and run a (half) marathon on behalf of Starship. As a part-time rookie in his early stand up career, Dai managed an Auckland bar for four years, until his 2002 Billy T James Award for best up and coming comedian thrust him into the spotlight. The young stand up was snapped up by youth channel C4 to host music show Insert Video Here. The show quickly gained a cult following and good ratings despite little advertising or promotion and Dai went on to host his own top-rating rural travel series called Roll the Dai and it's second season Australian version, Roll the Dai Outback. Dai regularly performs his solo shows at the annual New Zealand International Comedy Festival, selling out everywhere from Auckland's Concert Chamber to the huge SKYCITY Theatre. Since 2002 he's won a swag of awards from the 'Fred (as in'Dagg)'Award'for comedic excellence twice and Best Local Show at the Comedy Festival, to Best Male Comedian and Best MC at the NZ Comedy Guild Awards.

Testimonials.

CANTERBURY HOUSE OF THE YEAR 2015 - MC - JULY 2015

"Dai was brilliant. He controlled the large crowd very well and again covered off on the important parts of the script while adding some tasteful humour along the way. We had a lot of awards to get through at this event, and he handled this superbly, getting that good balance of keeping the crowd engaged and allowing the builders their moment of fame. Again, I thought Dai was great!" - Stacey Gibb, Canterbury House of Year Co-ordinator

Testimonials continued...

ASB GALA DINNER - MC - DEC 2014 "Dai was an absolute pleasure to work with, he was very professional keeping the audience entertained with his characters, witty repertoire and funny but clean jokes. He kept the evening moving at the perfect pace and I would definitely recommend him for any type of corporate event. "

YOUNG PRESIDENTS ORGANISATION - COMEDY SET - JUNE 2014

"Dai was engaging, funny and had people in stitches with his interpretive dance to Cyndi Laupers'Time after Time". Mark Hamilton, CEO Bell Tea and Coffee Company

FOODSTUFFS FRESH & GROCERY TRADE EXPO GALA DINNER - MC - AUGUST 2014

"Dai was the entertainment at the annual Foodstuffs Fresh and Grocery Trade Expo Gala Dinner 2014 –and entertaining he was! Dai was on the money as far as tone and his routine was funny and appealed to the wide range of people in attendance. He pulled off a humorous act with a sprinkling of cheek and just the right amount of naughty, his performance was well received by all. "Steve Anderson, CEO Foodstuffs South Island and MD Foodstuffs (NZ)Ltd.

"Thanks for being amazing on Saturday [Dai]! The feedback has been so positive, audience loved you. Your performance was a perfect fit, client was thrilled - they said they could not have asked for a more perfect ambassador and performer on the night. "Sophie Baettig Cievevents on behalf of L'Oreal

THE SILVER SCROLLS - MC - OCT 13

"The Silver Scroll Awards is an annual event celebrating the songwriters that dedicate their lives to music. The awards night is a prestigious invite-only event for 500 songwriters and industry. Dai Henwood hosted the awards in 2012 and 2013, and both years managed to strike a fine balance of humour and gravitas, entertaining the crowd whilst retaining a sense of occasion and respect. "Jamie Newman APRA/AMCOS

"How do you sum up an MC like Dai Henwood? Hysterically funny, fantastic sense of timing and occasion, willing to put in the research required to do a superb job of pulling a conference for 250 airline managers and aspiring leaders together in a fun, cohesive and meaningful manner. All 250 attendees, including the executive, were hugely impressed at Dai's skill as an MC" - Haley McCrystal - AirNZ

"Please pass on our sincere thanks to Dai Henwood for his input at our Pie Awards dinner for 2012. The fact that Dai embraced our Bollywood theme with such enthusiasm contributed to its success. We were privileged to have such a high profile presenter associated with our event. "-Brent Kersel NZ Bakels Ltd

Testimonials continued...

"Thank you Dai for the excellent job you did at the OZcars last week. I have received many comments on how absolutely hilarious you were. Thanks again for all the great effort to help make the OZcars 2008 the great success it was. " - Tourism Australia

"Dai 's energy is infectious, the delegates love him, and hell I even love him! Dai fits perfectly into a Madant event. He understands corporate requirements, and gently pushes the boundaries to surprise and delight all and sundry. We love using him for events and video production, and always look forward to our next encounters. " - Madant

"I would like to thank Dai Henwood for adding the perfect highlight to our staff Christmas function. Everyone enjoyed having a good laugh and it set an energised tone for the rest of the evening. Dressed in a great western shirt, Dai blended in perfectly with our Wild West theme and staffare still raving about how much fun they had. Thanks for your professionalism and making it such an enjoyable night! " - Power Farming Wholesale Limited

"Dai 's enthusiasm, versatility and ability to understand the specific requirements applicable to the occasion and the audience were impeccable. Dai worked to the requirements of the MC brief entirely, whilst still adding his own appropriate colourful touches and personality to the awards ceremony, creating an atmosphere throughout that was a fantastic, well-balanced mix of humour, celebration and inspiration. " - New Zealand Herald College Awards

"I am sure that Pamela, our event manager, will have thanked you on behalf of DINZ for your contribution to the BeST 2009 Design Awards. Dai, we experiment with different formulas for the awards evening each year (within our budget restraints of course)and also Mc 's for the evening.

Each year the MCs are complimented to us or not. so for what it's worth. This year is resounding in that the emails I have been receiving proclaim you to be the best ever.

I agree (although I would also acknowledge Carol and John back in 2003)-you captured our audience and held them all the way through. You were measured in a way that compelled listening, your pace doing justice to all finalists and enough intelligent humour to lighten the process.

Designers are a highly critical lot (and as one I do know this)so in pleasing them one never gets a consensus-but you got that consensus on Friday night. " - The Designers Institute of New Zealand

"Dai was amazing! So professional and easy to deal with, and so friggin funny! We have already had people asking to rebook for next year 's event. Dai read the crowd really well and used heaps of material that related to businesses there. So good! Really funny! We will be rebooking him for other events! " - Alice Duncan Mediaworks Canterbury

Testimonials continued...

Dai was the entertainment at the annual Foodstuffs Fresh and Grocery Trade Expo Gala Dinner 2014 –and entertaining he was! Dai was on the money as far as tone and his routine was funny and appealed to the wide range of people in attendance. He pulled off a humorous act with a sprinkling of cheek and just the right amount of naughty, his performance was well received by all.