Paul Ego has New Zealand's most recognisable voice, but his massive portfolio and ability to make everyone laugh is pretty cool too. A NZ radio veteran with award winning stints on both More FM and The Rock, Paul Ego was awarded the Billy T Comedy Award in 2000 and he continues to delight crowds with his masterful improv and acclaimed wit today. An innovative industry stalwart, Paul easily moves (and grooves) with the times, lending his charm to productions and making them iconic. Paul's extensive career has seen him as a staple favourite on the hugely popular comedy show 7 Days, as well as the voice of the stickman in the PAK'nSAVE ads!

Paul has even thrown it back to his years as frontman for band The Yes Men, when he performed as 'Mantis' on reality singing competition The Masked Singer NZ. Still touring his stand up comedy on a regular basis, Paul is a highly sought-after MC and Entertainer.

His impressive experience, charisma and humour have generated glowing reviews from clients and audiences alike, making Paul the perfect pick for a variety of events. Paul Ego will always engage a crowd, and deliver a polished and entertaining performance.

Testimonials.

Paul Ego was outstanding, the perfect blend of humour and professionalism. He had us laughing until our faces hurt, yet remained respectful and engaging throughout. He took real care to pronounce our award recipients' names correctly, delivered a brilliant 15-minute stand-up set, and transitioned straight back into MC duties with ease. An absolute pleasure to work with, we can't wait to do it again.

RANZ Event 2025

Roofing Association of New Zealand (RANZ)

- Kim Summerville | Event Planner

Paul was excellent, he was absolutely professional, excellent to work with given the short notice. He pitched the performance perfectly to the audience and left them wanting more. I would definitely use Paul again; professional, understood the client brief, pitched to the audience in the right way and left them wanting more!

RITANZ Event 2025

- Julia Clancy | Events Coordinator

Paul and Jaquie were fabulous! I can't believe they don't do more together. They are both so quick and witty that the banter was seamless and any adlib (which we encourage) was well received and very funny. I'd have no hesitation recommending them as an MC duo.

I had the wonderful opportunity to work with Paul Ego at our recent Queenstown conference in August 2021. Paul was engaged to MC our finale dinner event. He was a surprise component, so none of our guests were aware he was attending our function until we pulled the curtains back.

No task was ever too hard for Paul and he was able to script amusing introductions for each of our speakers as well as ad-lib playful banter with our presenters on the night. The combination of Paul's professionalism, calm nature and quirky sense of humour delivered an outstanding performance on the night. He was the perfect fit for our audience. I would definitely book Paul again for any up coming events. Many thanks again "Pego", for making this such a successful evening.
