

Brendhan Lovegrove.

Height 177 cm

It's no joke that Brendhan Lovegrove is extremely good at being funny! An acclaimed comedian, Brendan regularly performs at NZ's The Classic comedy bar. He has performed in all eight seasons of TV2's Pulp Comedy and hosted both of TVNZ's A Night At the Classic series. His unique sense of humour has not gone unnoticed as he has won almost every local comedy award going! Brendon holds a record for being eight-time winner of Best Male Comedian at the NZ Comedy Guild Awards.

He is extremely experienced in public speaking, having spent the last two decades honing his caustic wit and crowd-skills at clubs and corporate gigs - local and international. Known for his risqué jokes and motormouth delivery, Brendhan laps up crowd interaction. He is bold, intelligent, professional and able to willingly tailor his performance to any event.

Testimonials.

The Seagulls Luncheon Club has been raising funds for the North Shore community for 30 years. It is a chance for business owners, customers and friends to have a great afternoon and raise money, primarily for local sport. Normally we have an MC and speaker, or an MC and a well known sporting identity who is interviewed as the attraction to sell tickets.

This year we tried something a little bit different. We got Brendhan Lovegrove in. People were crying with laughter. Great comedians have a feel for their audience! After lunch he interviewed Israel Dagg expertly, and astutely coordinated questions from the floor. The feedback since Friday has been overwhelming. What a great afternoon!

I just wanted to send you a note to say what a truly wonderful job that you did our awards dinner on the 1st of September. Your approachability right from first contact was outstanding and then your performance on the night was well beyond expectation.

You had the guests in the palm of your hand from the opening monologue right through to the closing. The feedback that we have about yourself and the awards is unprecedented and I can't thank you enough for the energy and professionalism you delivered.

I cannot recommend you enough to any potential event organiser in the role of emcee. I look forward to working with you again in the future.

Just a quick note to say that Brendan Lovegrove did an awesome job with his show for the All Blacks tonight. His manic style and ability to connect with the boys was great. A lot of players and staff were rubbing the tears out of their eyes which was just what we needed. We would totally love to get him back again one day.

"Brendhan was extremely hilarious and entertaining during his MC gig for our awards dinner. He mixed in some stand up comedy amongst the more formal parts of his MC script which was very refreshing and made the audience laugh to tears. He was able to read the crowd quickly and thus come up with appropriate jokes and suitable for the occasion. We would definitely love to have Brendhan MC again for any future corporate awards dinners "Soiree Events
