MC / Entertainer Biography

Johnson&Laird

Aroha has been making her mark in the New Zealand music industry for many years now. Well-known for her work in radio, television, audio technology, with a big passion for music. Aroha worked for many years as a flagship host at top dance-music station George FM, as well as doing weekly music reviews for The Paul Henry Show. It's no surprise, then, that Aroha is also an award-winning professional DJ. Her eclectic dance music selections have seen her play support for some of the industry's biggest acts and emerging stars, including Disclosure, Diplo and Kaytranada. She often performs at events around the country, from small dance clubs to NZ's premier music festival Rhythm and Vines!
