MC/Entertainer Biography

JOHNSON&LAIRD

With arguably the best head of hair in the TV business, New Zealand born Kristian'Krit'Schmidt broke into the scene as a VJ for MTV Australia and New Zealand after coming out on top in a nationwide search!

Earning a Master 's degree in Education, a conjoint degree in Law and Arts and being a recipient of the prestigious Fulbright scholarship, it's not just street smarts that the quick-witted 29-year-old brings to his new life as an entertainer.

Krit has visited over 25 different countries, travelling the world as not just an explorer but also as a dancer through Hip Hop crews and Pacific performance groups.

To top it off, show business is in Krit's blood with Hollywood A-lister Dwayne'The Rock'Johnson being his cousin who featured as Krit's maiden interview! Since then he has managed to captivate audiences, balancing both fun and more pressing issues in interviews with the likes of Jack Black, Quentin Tarantino, Arnold Schwarzenegger, Amy Schumer, Ryan Reynolds, Chris Rock, Jason Derulo and Ice Cube.

You can also find Krit MCing and creating content for the Cronulla Sharks, NRL, Hoyts, Foxtel, Nickelodeon, MTV USA and MTV International! Krit has hosted dozens of red carpets, across every platform - from Snapchatting at the MTV Video Music Awards in New York to jumping on Facebook Live at the Dally M 's in Sydney. Krit also writes, produces, films and edits pieces for the Pacific newshub, The Coconet!

When Krit isn 't mixing with celebrities, he continues to follow his passion for education, working with students from less affluent communities through mentoring and motivational speaking.

With a killer smile and a cheeky personality to boot, Krit's ability to connect with people of all walks of life is set to hold him in good stead as an entertainer.
