Johnson&Laird

James Coleman is a man of many talents. Best known for his work as TV presenter and award-winning radio host, James is also a psychology major and drama school graduate! His media career has seen him work as a presenter for shows including TV3 show Sunrise, science show Bigger, Better, Faster, Stronger and The Jaquie Brown Diaries - where he showcased his award-winning comedy skills. James has also brought his sparky humour to radio, presenting on Radio Live, George FM and Channel Z - where he was named NZ 's Best Non-Breakfast Music Personality. A polished presenter with fantastic ad-lib skills, James is successful in both live and recorded settings, who is sure to engage and excite a crowd.

Testimonials.

"James is a talented, personable, witty MC/raconteur."

"James Coleman just gets it. Whether it's sports-related (MCing a crowd of 10,000 ski and snowboarding competitors and enthusiasts at the Methven Big Air show in 2003), or music-related (NZ On Air Platinum Plus Celebration, 2007) addressing and engaging 200 movers and shakers of the New Zealand Music Industry, James is your man. He executes with humour and intelligence."

I've been fortunate to know and work with James over the year in many capacities and he is always a pleasure to work with, a true professional.
